

Fish and Shellfish Qualifications/Apprenticeships

Registration Form for a potential New Entrant

This form is for individuals who are seeking an apprenticeship in fish and shellfish. It should be completed by anyone who is not yet employed in the industry or while currently employed, does not have access to an apprenticeship programme with their employer.

Contact details

Your name
Your contact address	Postcode:
Your telephone details
Your email address

Are you seeking employment in the fish and shellfish industry or are you currently employed in the industry?

I'm not yet employed in the industry and would like to secure an apprenticeship.

I am employed, but my employer doesn't yet offer apprenticeships.

Next steps

How would you like us to contact you? Telephone or Email? _____

Alternatively, you could contact us directly – see details below.

Have you viewed the information on apprenticeships and fish/shellfish qualifications on at www.seafoodacademy.org ? There's a range of leaflets and other information that may help.

Fish and shellfish industry skills qualifications and apprenticeships cover a range of activities including:

- Shellfish harvesting and bivalve purification;
- Fish and shellfish merchants;
- Fish and shellfish processing and manufacturing;
- Fishmongering and retail operations;
- Food service, in particular fish frying.

These qualifications are appropriate for operatives, team leaders, supervisory and management positions in the industry.

Please return this form to academy@seafish.co.uk, or post to Onshore Training Manager, Seafish, 7 Earls Court, Priory Park East, Hull HU4 7DY or telephone 01482 486482